This guide provides an overview of information, reporting options, and resources that provide assistance and support. Detailed information can be found on the Title IX website at titleix.utexas.edu.

What is Title IX? – Title IX is the law that requires gender equality for both sexes and genders in every education program that receives federal funding. Title IX incidents include many types of behaviors, such as sexual violence, discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct.

EMERGENCY RESOURCES

immediately after the incident

Reporting immediately after an incident can help preserve evidence by not showering, washing clothes/linens, and keeping pictures, text messages, voicemails, and social media communication.

- LAW ENFORCEMENT
  - University Police Department (UTPD): Individuals may report an incident, with or without filing charges. For emergencies call 911. 512-471-4441, use 9.
  - Austin Police Department: If the incident is occurring (occurred) in Austin, but off-campus, a report may be filed with APD. Emergencies, call 911. 512.974.5037

- MEDICAL ATTENTION
  - University Health Services: Provides confidential medical care (i.e. for STI and pregnancy testing, x-rays, medical exams), private space for forensic medical exams by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE), and patient education to students. 512.471.4955 • healthyhorns.utexas.edu
