Students for Title IX Education and Prevention (STEP) Program Peer

Paid Peer Educator Position | Title IX Office | 2026–2027 Academic Year

Applications Due: Wednesday, September 9, 2026

Want to get paid to help build a campus where every Longhorn feels respected and safe? The Title IX Office is hiring for the STEP Program Peers, a group of students who teach other students about Title IX policies, processes, support and resources, prevention, and intervention.

As a STEP Program Peer, you'll work closely with the Coordinators of Education and Prevention in the Title IX Office to design and lead student-centered training workshops, programming, and social media content. Topics include Title IX Basics, trauma-informed care, supportive measures, communicating boundaries, and retaliation. No prior Title IX experience needed—we'll train you.

Position Details

Compensation: $600 per semester

Time Commitment: 40 hours per semester, including some evenings and weekends

Term: Fall 2026 and Spring 2027 (September through April)

Reports to: Coordinators of Education and Prevention, Title IX Office

What You'll Do

- Conduct outreach and facilitate trainings, workshops, and programs for student groups and organizations
- Connect with UT students to build awareness and promote involvement
- Assist with prevention initiatives, such as awareness-month campaigns and social media content

What You'll Gain

- Paid, resume-building experience in prevention work, training facilitation, and peer education
- Public speaking and facilitation skills that transfer to any career field
- Direct mentorship from the Title IX Office's Coordinators of Education and Prevention
- A network of peers doing prevention work across campus

Qualifications

- Current registered student at UT Austin
- Commitment to continuous learning about sexual and interpersonal violence prevention
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Comfort using digital tools such as Microsoft Teams, PowerPoint, and Canva
- Ability to maintain privacy and confidentiality
- Strong organizational and time management skills
