NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION
ON THE BASIS OF GENDER

UT AUSTIN’S COMMITMENT
The University of Texas at Austin is committed to maintaining a working and learning environment that is free from inappropriate conduct based on gender. As required by Title IX, the University does not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender in its programs and activities, and it encourages any student or employee who thinks that he or she has been subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, interpersonal violence, stalking or sexual misconduct by another student, member of the faculty or staff, campus visitor or contractor, to immediately report the incident to any of the individuals or offices listed below. This policy covers all people (irrespective of gender identity/expression or sexual orientation identity).

DEFINITIONS
Title IX incidents include many types of behaviors. Definitions for Consent, Incapacitation, Interpersonal Violence (Domestic Violence/Dating Violence), Sex Discrimination, Sexual Assault (Rape, Fondling, Incest, Statutory Rape), Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Stalking can be found in the 2017-18 General Information Catalog, Appendix D: Policy on Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, Interpersonal Violence, and Stalking catalog.utexas.edu/general-information/appendices/appendix-d/ or the Handbook of Operating Procedures, 3-3031 Policy on Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, Interpersonal Violence, and Stalking policies.utexas.edu/policies/sex-discrimination-and-sexual-harassment

REFERRAL RESPONSIBILITY
Pursuant to Title IX, a Responsible Employee is a University employee who has the authority to take action to redress an alleged violation of this policy, and who has been given the duty of reporting such allegations to the University Title IX Coordinator or designee.

At the University of Texas at Austin, Responsible Employees include, but are not limited to:

- Administrators
- Academic advisors
- Coaches, and other athletic staff who interact directly with students
- Faculty members, including professors, adjuncts, lecturers, associate/assistant instructors (AIs) and teaching assistants (TAs)
- Graduate research assistants
- Residence life directors
- Resident assistants
- All supervisory staff

These persons are responsible for promptly reporting incidents of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct that come to his or her attention.

You may report specific complaints, or, if you are concerned about the conduct of a particular University employee. Such concerns may be forwarded to the University Title IX Coordinator, the Office for Inclusion and Equity, or the Office of the Dean of Students for discussion and potential investigation.

The Office of the Dean of Students will handle complaints or allegations of sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence), interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct by students.

For more detailed information regarding the procedures for reporting a grievance, see the following policies, as outlined in the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities, found in the General Information Catalog 2017-2018: http://catalog.utexas.edu/general-information/

Cases of sexual violence, interpersonal violence and stalking may also be reported to the University of Texas Police Department at (512) 471-4441 (non-emergency), 911 for emergencies, or utexas.edu/police; or to the City of Austin Police Department at (512) 974-5750 (non-emergency) or 911 austintexas.gov/department/police and other local law enforcement authorities. The Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator can assist individuals with contacting these law enforcement agencies and/or can accompany individuals wishing to file a report with one of these agencies.

Complaints of sex discrimination or sexual harassment, including sexual violence, interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct may also be referred to the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights. For more information, visit the U.S. Department of Education’s website at https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html

USE OF ALCOHOL AND DRUGS
The fact that the student accused of sexual assault was under the influence of drugs or alcohol at the time of the assault will not diminish the student’s responsibility for a violation of the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities, nor shall being under the influence of alcohol or drugs be construed as an invitation to or as implied consent for unwanted sexual advances.

CONFIDENTIALITY
The confidentiality of a complaint of sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence), interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct, and all documents, correspondence, and notes of interviews and discussions related to the investigation of a complaint will be maintained, on a need-to-know basis, to the extent permitted by law. Documentation related to the resolution of complaints or incidents of sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence), interpersonal violence, stalking, and sexual misconduct will be maintained by the Office of the Dean of Students, and the Office for Inclusion and Equity as appropriate.

RETIATION
Students, faculty and staff members are prohibited from retaliating in any way against an individual who has brought a complaint of sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence), interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct; or against any individual who has participated in an investigation of such complaints. Please note, a student, faculty or staff member who retaliates in any way against an individual who has brought a complaint pursuant to University sexual discrimination, harassment, or misconduct policy or participated in an investigation of such a complaint, is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the University.

FILING OF FALSE COMPLAINTS
Any person who knowingly and intentionally files a false complaint of sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence), interpersonal violence, stalking, or sexual misconduct is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the University.
